

History. Legacy. Community.

Just a twenty minute boat ride from downtown Portland, the Fifth Maine Museum offers a premier setting for your corporate event. This unique, Queen Anne style cottage was built in 1888 and is on the National Register of Historic Buildings.

The Fifth Maine Museum is an island getaway that provides an environment for team building and strategic planning – far removed from the distractions of the office. Whether you're looking for a quiet spot to host an executive meeting, a space to gather co-workers for a day retreat, or an exclusive VIP dinner venue, an event at the Fifth Maine Museum is an unforgettable experience.

Our indoor spaces can be arranged for banquets, classes, slide show presentations or intimate conversations.

Banquets – 75 guests

Workshops and classes – 50 guests

Slide show presentations – 75 guests

Our wrap around porch is a spectacular location for a sit down dinner or a cocktail reception.

Seated dinner – 50-60 guests

Cocktail receptions – 75-100 guests
