

1. Fifth Maine Museum – ART WALK Sponsor

45 Seashore Avenue
Peaks Island's History Museum

Wear your love of Peaks Island on your sleeve --- literally! The Fifth Maine Museum has T-shirts, hoodies, ball caps, books and other gift items! Treat yourself, or someone special!

2. Jody Halliday Wearable Art

39 Winding Way
www.jodyhalliday.com

Fashion-forward and vintage-inspired coats, jackets, hats, and bags that have been known to make the wearer stand a bit taller.

3. Kerry Flynn Sew Simple

93 New Island Avenue

In addition to pillows, aprons (for kids and adults), tote bags, and lavender sachets, Kerry will have face masks this year. She may even pull out some wintery items, like fingerless gloves and scarves.

4. Seasmoke Ceramics

11 Crescent Avenue

Sea-inspired bowls, vases, and vessels combine the look of treasures pulled from the bottom of the ocean with the functionality of everyday wares.

5. Mermaid Cottage Studio

19 Greenwood Street
<https://martidecoste.wixsite.com/artist>

Marti creates contemporary, semi-abstract work in many forms including painting, drawing, printmaking, and stained glass.

6. Peaks Beads

10 Island Avenue

Sea glass-inspired jewelry and art.

7. Ruthie and Jen Weiser

33 Brackett Avenue

8. Susan Hanley

108 Brackett Avenue

Plant-dyed silk scarves and camisoles, embroidered fairy dolls and silk fairy costumes, and handmade stuffed animals.

9. K. Newell Crafts

31 Central Avenue

Handmade primitive wood and wool crafts, photo cards and matted prints of Peaks Island scenes.

10. Sweet Irene Ceramics

273 Island Avenue

Sweet Irene is a collection of wheel thrown and hand built pottery made on Peaks Island and in Portland. I make homewares that are simple and pleasing to hold and use everyday. Everything is food + dishwasher safe.

11. Martha Daligan

4 Wiley Avenue

www.featherstonefibers.com

Unique handcrafted knits and fair trade bags, linens, stuffed animals that provide women (many who are young widows) with a living wage, free medical care, and education for their children.

12. Cinda Haas

428 Island Avenue

Water colors and acrylic paintings inspired by living on Peaks Island.

13. Fiona Moseley Paintings

471 Island Avenue

Whimsical fine art paintings by Fiona Moseley, a 2020 fine arts graduate of MassArt.

14. Liz Rollins

12 Trefethen Landing

Handmade cotton masks in designer fabrics for kids and adults – nautical, Marimekko, BLM, garden designs and kids' prints...and the popular Casco Bay chart mask. Custom orders welcome. Also, discount photography cards, prints and posters.

15. Purple Chloe Cards

671 Island Avenue

<https://www.etsy.com/shop/purplechloe>

Unique handmade greeting cards, banners and invitations that are funky and fun!

16. Christine Cassidy Photography

292 Pleasant Avenue

Celebrate Peaks Island with the 2021 Peaks Island Calendars,, as well as framed photographs and photocards with scenes from around the island.

17. Betsy Friedman Hays Jewelry

292 Pleasant Avenue

Stunning one-of-a-kind earrings, necklaces, and bracelets that stand out whether you wear them to a special evening event or just every day.

18. Jamie Hogan author/illustrator

265 Pleasant Avenue

<https://www.etsy.com/shop/Jamiehoganstudio>

Give the gift of art! In my shop you will find giclee prints of my pastels and some of my illustrated children's books, which Jamie is happy to inscribe and sign for that special someone.